Extra-Curricular Activity Dismissal Form

In order to establish a standard and efficient dismissal procedure that protects the safety and well-being of each student, please complete and return this dismissal form for all students involved in an after-school, extra-curricular activity.

Students in grades 5-8 are allowed to walk home as long as the signed parental permission is provided below. When making your decision of whether to allow your child to walk home, please be sure to consider their age, ending time of the activity, possible darkness depending upon the season, the route they will take home, and the absence of crossing guards.

Please complete the form below and return to your child's activity advisor.
